

Springboard Teacher

About Us: Building One Community (“B1C”) is a non-profit organization established in 2011 as a comprehensive resource center for immigrants in the Stamford, Connecticut area. B1C’s mission is to advance the successful integration of immigrants and their families.

Springboard Collaborative bridges the literacy gap by uniting home and school, coaching educators and families to help children read proficiently by 4th grade, with a vision of ensuring all children have the literacy skills needed for life opportunities. As part of this mission, Springboard Teachers lead Family-Educator Learning Accelerators, partnering with students and families to promote literacy growth. Reporting to B1C’s Springboard Program Leader, the Springboard Teacher will serve as an independent contractor within B1C’s Springboard program, working to support families and help students achieve accelerated reading progress.
