ABOUT THE COLLOQUIUM

Building One Community's Annual Colloquium brings together community leaders, employers, philanthropists, policymakers, volunteers, and advocates for an engaging evening of conversation, connection, and community impact.

Now in its 11th year, the Colloquium serves as a platform for exploring issues that shape immigrant integration, workforce development, economic mobility, and the strength of our communities. Through thoughtful discussion and meaningful dialogue, the event elevates diverse perspectives and inspires action that benefits our entire region.

The evening features a cocktail reception, opportunities to connect with community leaders and supporters, a silent auction, and a moderated discussion with distinguished speakers and subject matter experts. Guests will also experience firsthand how Building One Community's programs create pathways to opportunity for immigrant families throughout Fairfield County.

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

National and local experts exploring issues that shape our communities.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

An engaged audience of business, civic, nonprofit, and philanthropic leaders.

LASTING IMPACT

Supporting programs that help immigrant families thrive and contribute to our region.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

Throughout the evening, guests will experience firsthand how Building One Community's programs create opportunity and strengthen our region. During the reception, attendees will meet community members who are creating new opportunities for themselves and their families through Building One Community's programs

Your sponsorship helps create pathways to opportunity through education, workforce development, family support services, and community engagement.

WHY SPONSORS SUPPORT THE COLLOQUIUM
